THE COLEMAN MILL.—The Coleman Corn and Wheat Mill, which took the gold medal at the Mississippi State Fair, of 1871, is acknowledged to be the best mill made. It has been in use ever since 1850 and during that time has taken the first premium at sixteen State Fairs from New York to $2 00 PER YEAR Texas, including those of Mississippi for the years 1855, '69, '70, and '71. More than that, it is a Southern invention and manunational party would necessarily inflict, and without the slightest prejudice to their factured in the South. Send for circular manly adherence to, and consistency with an honorable Confederate record.

and price list. Address H. Dudley Coleman, No. 9, Union street, New Orleans.

Surely, no Southern man can be mad enough to expect to undo by the ballot, the results accomplished by a bloody war. This Liberal movement then, will reach the limit of the good possible to this section, and attainable, only, as being demanded by the Northern masses for their own good.

THE JONES-WADE BASTARDY Case. The rich and racy bastardy case in which Martha Jane Jones (colored) was plaintiff and J. Dora Wade (colored carpet-bagger from Ohio, and member of Legislature from Yazoo County), was detendant which we Yazoo County.) was detendant, which we spoke of a short time since, was tried on Democratic, speaks well of the ticket, Wednesday in the Circuit Court (Wade having been bound over to appear by the Justice of the Peace, in the sum of $500). The same rich scenes were enacted, and the case given to the jury, who shortly returned nomination of such men as we would pre- their verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $75 per annum for seventeen and a half years-whole amount $1312 50.
